

Guest Rider Policy (Approved November 24, 2009)

Purpose: The purpose of the Guest Rider Policy is to allow RVW members in good standing with RVW to purchase a rider to their membership that allows the member to bring a qualifying guest to an unlimited number of RVW events. The rider does not include events such as Balloon Festival Rally for which fees are charged nor does it replace the existing policy for non-members who wish to bring their own rigs and are exploring potential membership in RVW.

Policy: An RVW member may purchase a Guest Rider to her membership for an annual nonrefundable fee of $25.00. Members who have purchased riders would be so noted in the RVW Office membership files. The guest must be a woman 18 years of age or older. The guest may not live in the RVW member's household. Only one guest at a time may accompany the RVW member and the guest must reside in the RVW member's rig at any RVW functions. The Chapter Leader or the Outing Leader is responsible for ensuring that this policy is followed.

Procedure: Upon applying for membership to RVW, the prospective member would receive a statement of the Guest Rider Policy with instructions for purchasing the rider in her member packet information. Chapter Leaders would also have materials available to share with Chapter membership.

When membership files are sent to Chapters, those members who had selected the additional Guest Rider would be identified so that Chapter and Outing Leaders know who is allowed to bring guests under the policy. There would be no accounting of names or addresses of these guests and neither Directories nor RVW Magazines would be provided for covered guests.

Any deviation from this policy places the guest under the existing Guest Policy cited in RVW Policies and Procedures.

RVW members may add the Guest Rider to their membership at any time during the year as long as they notify RVW and submit the required fee. However, the fee will not be pro-rated for a part of the year. The Guest Rider may be renewed or cancelled when a member renews her membership.
